

Värmland 2017

Competition Information: Elite Sprint, Tuesday, July 25

Assembly

At the parking lot of the Arvika hospital. From there, follow streamers to the quarantine location at Taserudshallen, the sports facility at the Taserudsgymnasiet school (see embargo map below).

Bicycle parking is available at Taserudsgymnasiet. The closest car parking is at O-Ringen City, but competitors can be dropped off at the parking lot of the Arvika hospital.

Embargo until Tuesday, July 25, 10:00am

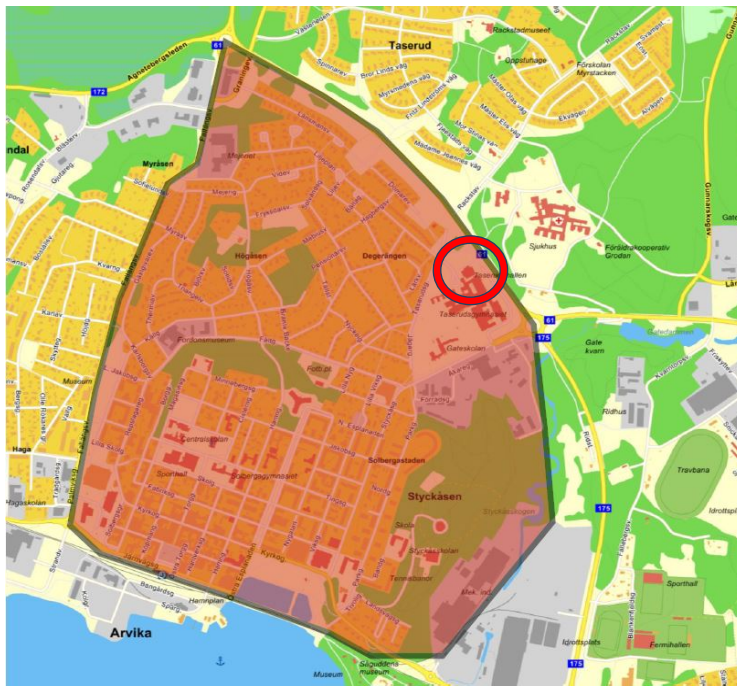

You are allowed to be in the area, but not to compare potential route choices and legs. This includes test-running, test-walking, or actively studying and analyzing terrain in the embargoed area.

Embargo from 10:00am on Tuesday, July 25 until entrance to quarantine

Competitors are not allowed to be in the embargoed area, as shown on the map below, from 10:00am on Tuesday, July 25 until their entrance into quarantine. It is allowed to follow streamers from the Arvika hospital parking lot to the quarantine entrance.

Embargo after finishing

Competitors are expected to not be in the competition area after completing their races.

Start order

The start order used for the sprint will be the reverse order of places from Sunday's stage of O-Ringen. That is, the winner of Sunday's stage will start last in the sprint.

Quarantine

D/H18 and D/H20

Quarantine opens at 1:00pm for the D/H18 and D/H20 classes. All competitors must be present and checked into quarantine by 1:30pm. Check-in takes place at the quarantine entrance. Anyone who does not check into quarantine in time will not be allowed to start.

Competitors who leave the quarantine without permission and go anywhere but to the start will also not be allowed to start. Competitors who have already finished their races may not visit the quarantine. The quarantine area contains toilets and drinking water. Any devices that allow competitors to follow the competition online or to collect information about the competition in some other way may not be used after competitors enter quarantine.

D/H21

Quarantine opens at 4:00pm for the D/H21.

All competitors must be present and checked into quarantine by 4:30pm. Check-in takes place at the quarantine entrance. Anyone who does not check into quarantine in time will not be allowed to start.

Competitors who leave the quarantine without permission and go anywhere but to the start will also not be allowed to start. Competitors who have already finished their races may not visit the quarantine. The quarantine area contains toilets and drinking water. Any devices that allow competitors to follow the competition online or to collect information about the competition in some other way may not be used after 2:00pm.

Changing clothes	Competitors can get ready for their races and change clothing indoors in the quarantine area before the race and in a designated area by the arena after finishing. Access to toilets and drinking water is available.
Warm-up area	A marked warm-up area is available outdoors next to the quarantine.
Clothing and bag return	Before heading to the start, runners should leave their bags and other belongings at the designated location. The organizers will then transport the bags to the arena.
Showers	Showers are located 500m from the arena; follow blue streamers to get there.
Clothing restrictions	There are no clothing restrictions.
Bib numbers	Competitors use their regular O-Ringen bib numbers. Officials in the quarantine area can help if a runner is missing his or her bib number. Bib numbers must be visible on the competitor's chest and back; advertisements must not be folded or removed.
GPS	The list of runners who will carry GPS trackers will be available on oringen.se on Monday evening (July 24), as well as at the quarantine. GPS vests and trackers will be handed out by officials in the quarantine area. They will also start the trackers. Competitors who refuse to wear GPS trackers according to the organizers' instructions will not be allowed to start. The equipment must be returned to organizers directly after finishing.
