Terms and Conditions for Registration through boka.oringen.se

These terms and conditions apply to purchases made through boka.oringen.se (The Registration Portal).

The company Nordic Travel i Sverige AB (NT AB; Nordic Travel in Sweden), Box 163, 271 24 Ystad, Sweden, is responsible for all bookings in conjunction with the event O-Ringen in Värmland 2017 (O-Ringen Värmland 2017) made through the booking portal. Competitions at O-Ringen Värmland 2017 are organized by O-Ringen (O-Ringen AB), Lägerhyddsvägen 2, Hus 38, 752 37 Uppsala, Sweden. In addition to, and in conjunction with, the competitions, O-Ringen AB and NT AB are organizing a number of various trips, accommodations options, and activities.

The terms listed below apply in addition to those required by the Association of Swedish Travel Agents and Tour Operators. These additional terms apply to NT AB and the individual who makes the booking-purchase (Booker) through the booking portal.

GENERAL BOOKING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By registering or ordering services through the booking portal, the Booker agrees to these terms and conditions for registration.

The purchase / reservation becomes binding for the Booker immediately upon receipt of verbal or written confirmation from NT AB. These terms apply from that moment regardless of whether the Booker has paid the entry fees in their entirety, partially, or not at all. Therefore, make sure to read the terms before making the purchase.

When the Booker registers or orders services on behalf of another person/persons, then by virtue of approval of these terms and conditions, the Booker insures that the person in question has been informed of and agreed to our terms and conditions.

NT AB and O-Ringen reserve the right to unilaterally change these terms and conditions. Any changes go into effect no earlier than 30 days after the new and updated terms and conditions have been published on our website, oringen.se. If we were to make significant changes to these terms and conditions, the Booker would have the right to terminate the agreement that was entered with us. Such a cancellation would not entitle the Booker to a refund of the payment that was already made.

Purchases/bookings are not subject to cancellations, changes, or refunds, unless specified in these terms and conditions for the particular product or service in question.

NT AB and O-Ringen AB reserve the right to transfer our rights and obligations according to these terms and conditions to a third party.

PAYMENT

Payment can be made with a credit/debit card (VISA/Mastercard) or through a bank transfer or invoice. Payment instructions can be found on the booking portal. After June 1, 2017 the only acceptable payment method will be with a credit/debit card (VISA/Mastercard). Regardless of payment method, the booking terms and conditions are in force at the time of payment. In order to protect and encrypt the Booker's credit card information, the booking portal uses a Secure Socket Layer (SSL) encrypted connection.

SPECIFIC TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR O-RINGEN AB'S COMPETITIONS

All participation in O-Ringen Värmland 2017 takes place at the participant's own risk. O-Ringen AB has insurance for unforeseen events that applies to all competitors and spectators. Additionally, O-Ringen AB is not responsible for any injuries you may incur during the event.

Participation in O-Ringen takes place under the competition rules of the Swedish Orienteering Federation that are currently in force and according to O-Ringen AB's instructions, including when those are issued by a third party contracted by O-Ringen AB.

If you have not provided a SportIdent chip number by June 1st, you will be issued one and charged the rental cost. For bookings made after June 1st without a SportIdent chip number, the rental cost will be automatically charged.

The right to start in the competition and to use pre-ordered services is only granted upon full receipt of payment.

Terms and conditions for changing or cancelling competitions entries or adding services

Registration for O-Ringen 2017 is binding, and registration fees are non-refundable. However, changes to various parts of the competition entry can be made for a cost specified below. Certain additional services can only be refunded up through April 1st.

A name change costs 200 SEK and can be made through the booking service or customer service at O-Ringen up until 9:00PM on July 21st. The cost of change is per competition start that is disposed.

When a change of class or orienteering discipline is made, the difference in cost will not be refunded. When a change is made to a more expensive class or discipline, the price difference at the moment of the original booking is calculated.

Changes and cancellations can be made to the competition entry and to related additional services. Some of these changes can be made through the booking service for a service fee of 110 SEK, and others can be made through oringen.se free of charge up through June 1st. After June 1st, all changes (made via the booking service, oringen.se, or customer service at O-Ringen) cost 110SEK. The cost of 110SEK is per participant and booking no matter the number of changes made for that participant. If you add a service no service fee is added.

One exception to that is changing a competitor's punching card number. This can be done for free through oringen.se or for a service fee of 110 SEK through the booking service or at customer service.

In certain situations, the cost of cancelled services can be used to supplement payment for other services through the booking portal for the same year's O-Ringen event.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CANCELLATION INSURANCE

NT AB offers a voluntary cancellation insurance for bookings made via the booking portal. If the Booker has signed a cancellation insurance, then a full refund will be provided if one person in the travel party cannot reasonably use the service in question because that person or a close relative is affected by an acute illness, accident, or death.

The term “close relative” applies to any spouse, child, grandchild, sibling, parent, grandparent, stepparent, or domestic partner of the insured person, or anyone in the insured person’s traveling party for this booking. The term “acute illness” refers to an illness that the person in question did not know about, could not know about, or could not have predicted at the time of booking. All injuries or illnesses must be confirmed by a signed doctor’s note. Certain exceptions apply to the cancellation insurance, even when a doctor’s note is provided.

The following conditions must be met for the cancellation insurance to go into effect:

- The cancellation insurance was signed in conjunction with an original booking (not with a change made to a booking)
- Cancellation must take place at the latest the day before the date of the specific activity. No refund applies if a cancellation is made at a later date.
- Cancellation insurance is only valid in combination with a doctor’s note. An insurance claim must be sent to us no later than five business days after the cancellation is made. The doctor’s note must be filled out and signed by a doctor connected to Försäkringskassan (Swedish Social Insurance Agency) and must contain the doctor’s name, contact information, and official stamp. The doctor’s note must also mention the date the patient was examined, the results of the examination, the diagnosis, and, when applicable, the conclusion that the patient is unable to travel.
- When cancellations covered by cancellation insurance are made, the cost of the cancellation insurance is not refunded.

Cases not covered by the insurance:

- Acute escalation of an existing illness or chronic health problem.
- Examination, treatment and/or admission or stay at a hospital that was planned before the trip was booked.
- Planned surgeries/procedures and illnesses or complications resulting from such surgeries/procedures.

RESERVATIONS FOR GROUPS LARGER THAN 10 PEOPLE

If no other agreement has been made, the person placing the order must provide specific information about the number of group members and the names of those who will be staying in the rooms. This information must be provided no later than 4 weeks before arrival.

Strikes, lockouts, fire, blockade, war, shortage of provisions/supplies or other extraordinary circumstances beyond the hotel’s control entitle the facility to void the contract without any obligation to pay compensation in any form.

A deposit, paid either by credit card or through an invoice, is required to be paid no later than 30 days after the confirmed reservation.

Cancellation insurance does not apply to group reservations.

COMPLAINTS

Any complaints regarding a purchased or booked product or service must be submitted to those responsible for the produce or service in question or to their agent as fast as possible. If the problem is not resolved, contact NT AB. The right to any potential compensation is forfeited if you do not inform the providers of the product or service immediately and provide them with sufficient time and opportunity to resolve the issue at hand. Any claims and requests for compensation must be submitted to NT AB in writing no later than August 31st of the year of the event.

If the booked trip cannot be undertaken due to reasons that are valid under the travel conditions specified by the Association of Swedish Travel Agents and Tour Operators, the entire cost of the reservation will be refunded, less NT AB's fixed cancellation fee of 600 SEK.
